San Francisco Lockout Delays

July 30, 2024

Due to a shooting incident on July 3, 2024, in San Francisco, lockouts are now rescheduled for late August through September. During the incident, a tenant fired multiple shots at sheriff deputies performing a lockout. As a result, the San Francisco County Sheriff's Department will undergo additional training to help prevent similar incidents in the future.

Please be aware that the incident may also affect lockouts in neighboring counties.

If you have any questions regarding this delay, please contact our office at nocal@kts-law.com.
